26th Annual MG Classic Race Meeting: Heading Towards Another Great Weekend

The 26th annual MG Classic race meeting on 12 and 13 November 2011 is well on the way towards being another huge success with a record number of races and a wide variety of races for a broad range of classic and historic type vehicles..

To date entries are well on their way towards the expected 300 mark and around 43 races have been scheduled to cater for the range of cars entered. The race categories include mainstream classic sports and saloons, Pre '65 classic saloon cars, Muscle Cars, the Castrol BMW Race Drivers series, component cars, alternative classics, historic racing cars and the thundering Formula 5000 single seaters. ,

Feature races over the weekend are the F5000 Grand Prix type event on Sunday and the Sybil Lupp Memorial Trophy Race on Saturday.

Sunday will also feature the popular lunchtime rides around the circuit with this year a bevy of cars supplied by the Ferrari Club. The organisers are also planning a Tortoise and Hare race that will pit a Formula 5000 single seater from the 1960s against a modern sports or saloon car.

The new Manfeild stadium will house a car show and house the F5000 brigade along with a range of other entrants, will be of particular interest to spectators.
